

Research in Comparative and Global Social Policy

Series Editors: Heejung Chung, University of Kent, Alexandra Kaasch, Bielefeld University and Stefan Kühner, Lingnan University, Hong Kong

Published in association with the Social Policy Association

"Edited by excellent scholars, this book series is a timely attempt to create an interdisciplinary and truly global dialogue between academic researchers and international organizations involved in social policy."

Daniel Béland, Johnson-Shoyama Graduate School of Public Policy, Canada

In a world that is rapidly changing, increasingly connected and uncertain, there is a need to develop a shared applied policy analysis of welfare regimes. Through a unique combination of comparative and global social perspectives, books in this series address broad questions around how nation states and transnational policy actors deal with globally shared challenges.
